

Exam 1 Study Guide

Exam 1 is closed book/note and you will have 60 minutes to complete. This only covers content from weeks 1–2.

1. There will be several short answer, listing, or matching questions from Reading the Gospels Wisely. Many of these questions are topics that were also covered in the lectures as well.
2. You will need to be able to list out Dr. Pennington's method for analyzing narrative (see the closer reading guide for the steps)
3. There are a couple other questions not associated with Reading the Gospels Wisely but come from the lectures.
4. There will be 15–20 multiple choice, true/false, matching questions from the Strauss reading.
5. There will be up to 5 questions coming from the Hill reading that you have completed so far.

Exam 2 Study Guide

Exam 2 is closed book/note and you will have 90 minutes to complete. This only covers content from weeks 1–5.

1. 10 questions directly from Exam 1
2. 20 questions over the Strauss reading in Matthew along with content questions from the Gospel of Mark (multiple choice, T/F)
3. 20 questions over the Strauss reading in Mark along with content questions from the Gospel of Mark (multiple choice, T/F)
4. Essay question about the Gospel of Matthew. You will want to know the two summary statements (sentences) that Dr. Pennington provides in lecture 15 and be able to expand on them while engaging the entire book of Matthew.

Exam 3 Study Guide

Exam 3 is closed book/note and you will have 90 minutes to complete. This only covers content from weeks 1–8.

1. 5 questions directly from Exam 1
2. 10 questions directly from Exam 2
3. 20 questions over the Strauss reading in Luke along with content questions from the Gospel of Luke (multiple choice, T/F)
4. 20 questions over the Strauss reading in John along with content questions from the
5. Gospel of John (multiple choice, T/F)
6. You will be given one of the following essay questions. You need to prepare for both
  1. Trace through Luke the theme of salvation, including explaining how Luke envisions what salvation is.
  2. Trace through John the theme of signs, showing where it occurs and how it functions